

South Africa

- 235 Hamilton Russell ,Chardonnay 2016 £48.00
From the Walker Bay district. Anthony Hamilton Russell is responsible for some of the Cape's finest and rarest wines. This chardonnay combines old world elegance with new world forward fruit. The best French barrels are used to ferment the fruit..
- 236 Raats, Original Chenin Blanc, Stellenbosch, 2016 £32.95
This is the best unwooded Chenin blanc we have tasted! From a small family winery focusing on chenin and cabernet franc. Brother Bruwer and Jasper hand select the grapes, they hope when you drink this wine you can share their passion!
- 237 Iona Sauvignon Blanc, Elgin, 2017, £34.95
An elegant, complex and finely balanced wine , style more like old world rather than new, lovely!.

New Zealand

- 243 Riesling, Zephyr, Marlborough, 2016 £33.95
A recent gold medal winner! Very expressive wine with stunning green apple, lime citrus.
- 245 Sauvignon Blanc, Zephyr, Marlborough, 2016 £36.00
Bursting with gooseberry, tomato leaf and lemongrass aromas. Lovely minerality , length and acidity.

Chile

- 247 Viognier, Puertas Antiguas, Lius Felipe Edwards, Chile ,2015, £31.95
Aromas of white peach , with subtle notes of pear and jasmine. This wine has been made in collaboration with Corney & Barrow, made from a special selection of grapes from one of the producers best sites in the Valle Central. Bursting with stone fruit flavours.
- 248 Sauvignon Blanc, Casa Marin, Cipreses Vineyard, 2014 £38.95
The very best Chilean Sauvignon we have tasted. The grapes are from the best vineyard, very elegant, gooseberry flavour with a long lingering finish. An icon among Chilean sauvignons.

Argentina

- 253 Torrontes, Zuccardi, Serie A, Salta, 2012 £31.95
Beautifully balanced, wavy floral nose with hints of citrus, spice and lavender. Drier than most Torrontes with a refreshing acidity.
